

Veli Hussein

Born: October 1, 1965 Kosovska Mitrovica

Lives: Pula, Croatia

President: Association of the Roma people

Secondary Education

Veli Hussein is a major human rights activist for Roma in the Republic of Macedonia. Croatia, its organization “Udruga Roma”, as the founder of the first kindergarten for preschool and school education up to 9th grade, its activism and organization, also helps to employ parents of the same children who study in kindergarten and in the preschool. He came to the IRU in 1998 as a member and attended the first congress of young Roma people in Europe, and his activism began strongly and actively in international waters. Veli Hussein, is a great activist and traditional Roma, who nurtures Roma culture, tradition, organizing many events, presenting the beauty of Roma, traditional Roma cuisine, as well as organizing many conferences and seminars in ISTRa, as well as organizing the 7th Congress of the IRU in Zagreb in 2008. In 2016, he became a treasurer of the IRU, and with his activism, this composition of the IRU received great public support.